Peranakan Experience

(Tuesday, Thursday & Friday (Except Public Holidays))

Babas, Nonya, Bibiks, Straits-Born Chinese... these terms are commonly used by many Singaporeans to refer to the Peranakan Chinese. The tour starts with a walk-through of the spice garden – a small replica of the original tract Raffles established in 1822 on Fort Hill as the first “experimental and Botanical Garden” in Singapore. The garden at Fort Canning was planted mainly with nutmeg, clove and other economic plants. Next, visit The Peranakan Museum is a boutique museum with the finest and most comprehensive collection of Peranakan artifacts in the world. Tour continues with a stop at Katong, evoking a warm nostalgia, especially among the older generation of Singaporean. Katong has retained a hold on its past, reveling in its incredibly rich Peranakan and Eurasian heritage and architecture, soaking in its great charm. Drive passes Koon Seng Road in Joo Chiat – districts that showcase rich and baroque Peranakan architecture. The area is named after Chew Joo Chiat, a wealthy Peranakan landowner, who built shop houses and residential units on land he bought after World War I.

\ Please note that this tour will operate with a minimum of 08 passengers.*

City Tour By Land & Water

This is the tour that takes you overland and through water to make sure you're soaked and wringing wet with culture and everything fantastic about Singapore. Tour begins with a visit to Kampong Glam - originally a fishing village at the mouth of the Rochor River; it was the historic seat of Malay royalty in Singapore. Look out for the Arab cloth merchants with their delicate silks and velvets, food stores selling traditional Arab-Muslim foodstuff and merchandise of all kinds. Next, drive through the Colonial district for a view of Parliament House and the imposing Supreme Court and City Hall that overlooks the Padang. Then, we proceed to Chinatown where you will enter the 160 years old Thian Hock Keng Temple, a must for Chinese immigrants in the early days and uniquely built without any use of nail joints. Stop by at the Gem Factory, admire the best of Asian craftsmanship. Down to the Water – enjoy the River Boat ride; cruise along the Singapore River.
